Boldly Beautiful with Nikol Wikman

Painting big, bold florals has always been one of my absolute favorites! I know that for many, the idea of painting large can feel a bit overwhelming. In this class, I'll walk you through my process as I create a large flower painting on canvas. Using acrylics, we'll let our creativity flow and play with paint to bring a beautiful, floral statement piece to life. It's all about having fun and embracing the process - I can't wait to share this creative journey with you!
