

Supplylist

- heavyweight Watercolor Paper
- Pencil & Eraser
- Brushes of your Choice
- Watercolors of your Choice - I used Daniel Smith Watercolors - but work with YOUR favourite Brand / the Brand(s) you have at home!
- black, finetip Pen for Outlining Work (I use Uniball Eye Rollerball but also love Steadtler Fineliner, Edding Fineliner or Faber Castell Fineliner - however - I would recommend one with a metal Tip like the Uniball because it's more durable especially when working on a Mixed Media Surface compared to a Felt Tip Pen)
- white Paintmarker (Sharpie or Molotow Paintmarker) - or white Gesso or white Gouache Paint - I use Dr. Ph. Martin's Bleed Proof White
- Stencils
- Palette Knife
- Texture Paste of your Choice (white / clear / with Glitter etc.)
- Collage Elements & Collage Glue (or Gel Medium / Mod Podge)
- Stamps of your Choice

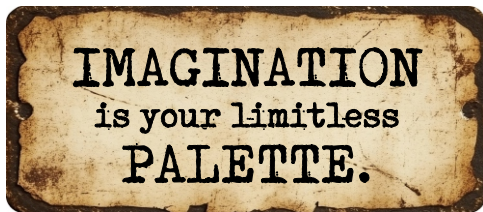

Please keep in mind that in Art it's not about the Supplies - so those are the Supplies I used to create my piece - however - you might use other Supplies from your own Stash to create a similar Piece! I'm a firm believer in „use what you have and make it work for you“ ... so if you decide to work with other Brands - go for it - lots of Art Supplies can be replaced by other, similar Supplies & Medias ... make it your own!

About

Andrea Gomoll is an Mixed Media- & Watercolor Artist from Berlin / Germany, where she lives with her Husband Thomas and 3 crazy Cats.

She studied Design in Berlin and started her own Business as an Artist, Art Instructor and Designer in 2009, sharing her Love and Passion for everything Creative with the World ever since.

"I'm a multifaceted Artist, loving whimsical, colorful Illustrations that nurture my inner Child as well as more realistic Everyday Sketches and Paintings with a spiritual Influence.

My Art always reflects my Mood and my Life and since Life is never following a single, straight Road neither does my Art. Watercolors are my Media of Choice and I love mixing them with other Media to create cheerful, colorful Pieces. Being creative is essential for me – it helps through the rough days and makes the good days even better. Art can help you in so many ways - it has a positive impact on your Life and on your Wellbeing - and I love to inspire, teach and enable others to play, have fun creating and to discover the artist within, just waiting to be nurtured."
